THE CITY OF ROSES.

Hundred Varieties Growing in Profusion in and Around New Ocleans,

I don't believe there is any region on earth where roses grow in such abandance, variety, beauty and sweetness as ago. It is twined around a veranda, pride, envy and discension. and its gorgeons clusters of cream-tinted roses are splendid to behold. At of the pale gold beauties will fill a room with perfume. They are plentiful down here as "white top" in northern meadow. And they sell for $1 a bud up

At the Jockey Club races we saw doz-ens of handsomely dressed ladies with your abominable artificial things.

The Curse of Inherited Wealth.

Gath, in Cincinnati Enquirer.

The death of Cornelius J. Vanderbilt invites no other comment except as to the existence in almost every family which has devoted its whole energies to the acquisition of money of a certain streak of insanity. This frequently comes through family intermarriages, The Stevens family, of Hoboken, which has had a business existence of a cen- his hand "Glad to see you." tury, and divided with Fulton the introduction of the steamboat, and built the first railroad across New Jersey-is said to contain some queer members, and physical exaggerations like wens and goiters mark some of them. Old Commodore Vanderbilt married a cousin, and he had a hard nature; and while his wife bore him many calldren she sometimes felt the need of his sympathy and gentleness to that degree that the President walked on. she had spells of depression amounting to aberration. The old commodore, deeply bent on earning money and becoming a millionaire, neglected those courtesies which to women are more than riches. Consequently the family had as many varieties of children in it as there were in the Chuzzlowit family. The girls married various kinds of men -brokers, expectants, pensioners, etc., and the principal topic through all these subordinate families was the old them bare. One son, George Vander-$100,000 from her father-in-law.

thought that a son who would run in He liked it so much that he thought a son who would spend his money had If he had taken the humane view of a thousand parents who suffer for their to pay their debts, something might have been made of Cornelius. But he persevered in going into debt, and his father persevered in repudiating him, and it was the old story of the proditry eating corn-husks, while the good son was at home plowing and digging. But this father killed no fatted calf when Cornelius came back. His mother petted the errant boy, and one of his sister threw the mantle of charity around him and assisted to make a as for her brother Cornelius. whom she awkward things in this world—.—Elthought to be badly treated.

The aged lady who bore these numerous children had been dead but a A New York woman has made her that the child would live and prosper little while when Vanderbilt took will on silver cards, taking out a piece in good health, notwithstanding its another wife, and she also was in some of each being alike-and giving this diminutive proportions. The midget manner of his tribe and family. The piece to different heirs. They are to is so small that three of its size could newspapers which announced the third receive what she has bequeathed them play hide and seek in a eigar box. This marriage of this lady soon to place on the cards into which their cresent is believed to be the smallest baby ever place, also brought the news of the pieces fit.

never-do-well son. He has forced his more steady brother to make a general settlement with the family, including himself, but it was too late for money to accomplish any reformation. The morning after the suicide the Vanderbilt stock took a downward run; and they do in this (New Orieans) county. thus the son who had never had any A Mississippi gentleman to whom I good influence in his life, and whose have been inhibited for the information career was one long series of misforon various subjects, tells me that there tunes, pulled a fragment of the temple is growing and in bloom at his home down, like Samson of old, when he exthis moment a Lamarque rose vine 80 pired. If the people would take the feet long. The stem is eight inches lesson to heart, they would see that through in the thickest part. It was these great fortunes seldom bring any planted seventeen or eighteen years real happiness, but merely augment

On the Sunday afternoon that Vanderbilt was lying dead I walked with a New Orleans the Marechal Neibroses friend up Fifth avenue, looking at the cause the northerner to stare in speech splended new houses of the more forless wonder. I saw one of the plants tunate members of the Vanderbilt fam-that must have been fifty feet long. I ily—William, the heir, and his sons and have seen vines of the same rose that sons-in-law. Elaborate, carving in long in the north, but they were scrag- stone, fantastic efforts of the architect, gy and lean-looking and in the florists costly corner lots, gilt bronze and greenhouses. At New Orleans they stained glass all blended together to run wild and revel like a midsummer make this plain human life seem more night's dream. The blossoms grow in durable and elaborate; and while we gorgeous clusters of half a dozen or talked about the uses of money and the more, and the flowers are so large that good it might do, there lay, without they would more than cover the top of a large sized coffee cup. A single one powerful father's name with a bullet-

Recalling Old Times.

Fourteen years ago, when Chester A. In some of the private citizens' yards in New York of what is known there as s hundred different kinds of roses all the Custom House variety, he numberin bloom at once. They do not require ed among his friends the mate of a vesprotection from cold at any time, either. sel, named Kennedy, whose influence They all stand out doors in the open Arthur had often occasion to use when ground, and many varieties bloom more circumstances required the votes of or less all the winter through. The the floating population of the harbor rose is a favorite flower at New Ofleans. front.

Just about that time Arthur made an unsuccessful effort to obtain some minor exquisite rosebuds at their belts and municipal appointment. The mate elsewhere in their dresses—the sweet, condoled with his political friend upon lovely flower that nature made, none of his disappoinment, and soon after sailed for Washington with a cargo of hard-The rose the French inhabitants of ware. While ascending the Potomac a New Orleans are foundest of in decorablock and tackle fell upon the mate's tion is called the "gold of Ophir." head, indenting his skull in such a Northern florists have it but it is not manner that the man became practicaly common. The bud is especially prized an idiot, and was placed in the District for its beauty. It is a smallish rose, of a very pale pink, shaded off toward the heart in a deep, rich gold color. Frint of Philadelphia, visited the asylum, stripes of crimson touch the outer pet examined the case and straightway perals. It is one of the loveliest roses I formed an operation invented by him-ever saw.—N. O. Commercial. self, which resulted in the almost imself, which resulted in the almost immediate return of the patient's reason, the intervening fourteen years being, of course, a complete blank.

A day or two after his recovery, the mate walked out, and began strolling through the Capitol building. Almost falls due to-morrow." the first person he encountered was President Arthur, who was just leaving the Executive chamber in the Senate

"Howdy, old man," said the sailor. "How's things? Got a job yet?" "Well, I believe I have," said the Executive, with a smile. "A pretty big chance at a man like that," murmured job, too. You must come up to the White House and see me." amazed mariner.

"Poor old Chet!-clean gone, clean gone," mused the mate. "Actually believes himself to be President of the United States, Smart man once, too. That just shows you, gentlemen," he continued, turning to the bystanders, "that just shows you what politics and been spared the sayings of "Selfish as a disappointment will bring a man to. heg," hungry as a pig," and "he eats Poer old Chet?!-San Frincisco Post. like a regular hog," etc.

Wicked.

"Well, brethren," said a Maine minman's money, and whether Bill was not ister to some of his fellow-evangelists, going to get it all and leave the rest of "I never was guilty of laughing in the bilt, was sent to West Pont, married pulpit but once. Some years ago I had men and women." early and died, and his widow received in my congregation an old man who universally went to sleep in church and he is content, wile most men must nelius, had a good deal of irregular snored loudly throughout the entire chew, smoke and nibble between meals talent, particularly at expressing him- service. One Sabbath morning, glanc- and have a lunch at bedtime. self on paper; but the commodore soon ing in his direction, I saw him as usual, found that he avoided paying his debts, with his head back enjoying a nap, and took a terrific dislike to him. He and right above him, in the gallery, a young man was rolling a large quid of debt had no redeeming quality what tobacco around in his month. As I ever. This was only an exaggeration looked he took it out and pressing it of the commodore's passion for money. Into a ball poised it carefully over the opened month below. I became so interested in the proceeding that I neither the resurrection nor the life. forgot to continue the sermen, but stood watching the young man. With a wicked smile he took careful aim and sons without any corresponding means dropped it squarely into the old man's

"With a gulp-lp-lp the sleeper started up and with a face red as a beet rushed world was born in that camp, at noon from the house. The people no doubt on the 3d inst. The father is a miner were horrified, but I could not have in the employ of the Northen Belle gal, who was always off in a far count kept from laughing if a sword had hung over my head ready to fall. the old man did not come back for several Sabbaths, and when he did he changed a male, as perfectly formed as any huhis seat and remained wide awake.

will-not on her own account so such a shirt that hasn't any; and of all the mira Free Press.

The Chinamaa and the Recorder.

"Well, well, who is this?" queried his Honor, as Bijah walked out a China-man and carefully arranged him before the desk according to the latest Paris

"Me Sing-He," replied the prisoner.
"Sing-He, th! What do you do?"

"Keepee washee shop. "How long have you been in Detroit?"

"Long timee." "Well, sir, you are charged with being drunk and disorderly. What do you say to that?" "No likee dat. No drinkee - no fightee. Boy comee long and call me mmes and throw mud."

"And what did you do?" ........ "Tell him gitee way purty soon, but ie no go. "And then what?"

Then I walkee out and-and-"And you bexed his ears, pulled his hair and caused him to yell and alarm the neighborhood with his yells." Boy no callee me names, I no box

"Yes, but if the boys bother you the law will take care of them. You have no right to strike any one.

"Didn't strikee hard." "But you broke the law. This is the second time you have been here for fighting, and I can't overlook it. Sing-He, the Chinese must pay."

"How muchee?" "Well, I'll call it $2, being you are a stranger in a strange land. If it was a white man he'd have to pay $5."

"Two dollee—two dollee!" wailed the prisoner, as he danced around -"I no payee two dollee! I payee two shil-

"If you don't pay I send you up." Sing-He finally decided to pay, and he produced a handfull of coin and counted out the fine in three cent pieces and pennies.

"Now you can go home." "All light. Two dollee breakee me all up."

"You must let the boys alone." "Boys no callee namee I no gitee mad. Two dollee-two muchee-good bye-comee see you more purty soon!" Detroit Free Press.

He Didn't Mind the Expense.

"Fourteen dollars for a little lunch for two!" exclaimed a prosperous looking customer to the proprietor of a restaurant. "Why, what the devil do you take me for?"

"I know its a little steep," said the steak stretcher, "but you're the only soul that's been in to-day, and my rent

"I'm blamed if I don't really admire a man with a nerve like yours, and I'l pay the swindle," and with an amused "Why, how are you, Kennedy?" said smile the blooded stranger tossed the the first citizen, affably extending. hash pirate a $50 note, flipped a dollar out of the change to the waiter and walked out.

"What a pity we can only have one the dyspepsia dispenser regretfully. But, when the next day the rent col-"To the White House?" repeated the lector threw out the note as a counterfeit, his dispair was such that it was all "Yes, just ask for my private secre- four waiters and the cook could do to tary, and he'll show you right in," and prevent his swallowing a bottle of his own alleged wine, and thus putting an end to himself.

Fair Play for the Hog.

If our forefathers had studied the hog with any closeness we would have

To begin with, the hog is not a selfish creature. Two hogs will agree about as well as two men, and a hog who was taken along on a steamboat excursion would have cause to say to his brother porkers: "You act like

The hog is not a hungry animal. Give him three square meals a day and

To "act like a hog" would be to mind one's own business, go to bed early and be satisfied with the situation. The hog is not a liar, hypocrite or dead beat -he acts on the square, is always as represented, and in his disposition has few equals in the human race. He has been misunderstood and abused, and it is time that his friends rallied to give him fair play.

The Smallest Baby in the World.

Carson Appeal.

A gentleman from Candelaria, Nev., informs us that the . mallest baby in the mine, and weighs 190 pounds. The mother is a stout, healthy woman, weigh ing perhaps 160 pounds. The child is man being could be, but upon its birth it only weighed eight ounces. Its face A RATHER popular story is entitled 'i about the size of a horse chestnut, "The Tale of a Shirt." We know of and the size of its limbs can be imagined when we say that a ring worn on the little finger of its mother was easily slipped over its foot nearly to the knee. Our informant states that it was the opinion of the attending physician

MARUFACTURED BY THE DR. HARTER MEDICINE CO., NO. 213 HORTH WAIR STREET, ST. LO.

THE overdoing of the modern asthetic business is illustrated in an exchange by these incoherent words: "Bridget, why hast thou to me so well recommended by Mrs. Bongtongs not as I bid thee these many times conformed to wishes of mine expressed in this respect for sooth that though time beyond laundry day is by two days extended. yet thee no sprinkle to the articles hath given, nor doth to me anywhere upon the range appear the sad iron which ere this in times that were to and fro to glide was wont. Peradventure-" Well, mum, in a Quaker family working was I once, but long enough not I the language to learn; an' if in a furrin tongue ye spakin' be, it's to me intirely, unbeknownst. "based to a too rod . gante at

A Russian proverb says: "Before going to war, pray once; before going to sea, pray twice; before getting married, pray three times."

"IT WORKS LIKE A CHARM."

Affords instant relief in all cases of Rheuma-tism, Neuralgia and Sciatica.

Mixed with a little molasses or honey, will cure speedly the worst case of Cough, Cold or Hoarseness, Relieves Diarrhea and Dysentery in a manner so grateful that its action is never succeeded by

Soothes the pains and gripings in children,

Affords immediate relief in Diphtheria and all tions of the throat. Cures stiff or swollen joints, and removes crick in the back at once.

Has no equal in the world for burns, scalds or Cures Canker, Sore Mouth, Headache, Tooth-ache and Earache.

Scalp and Eruptions of the Skin, Sprains and Strains of any of the muscles of the body. It works like a charm in every ailment peca-liar to ladies.

bottle of Renne's Pain Killing Magic Oil in the house, or on hand for immediate use in case of an emergency, will often save a life or

Sold by Druggists, Grocers and Dealers in Medicines.

Southern Wholesale Depot, Dallas,

H. C. HOSKING. Manager.

SYMPTOMS OF A TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Pain in the Head, with a dull sensation in the back part, Pain under the Shoulder blade, fullness after eating, with a disinclination to exertion of body or mind, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, with a feeling of having neglected some duty, Weariness, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, Yellow Skin, Headache generally over the right eye, Restlessness, with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine, and

CONSTIPATION.

TUTT'S PILLS are especially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

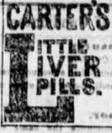

They Increase the Appetite, and cause the body to Take on Flesh, thus the system is nourished, and by their Tonic Action on the Digestive Organs, Regular Stools are produced. Price 25 cents. 25 Hurray St., N. Y.

GRAY HAIR OR WHISKERS changed to a GLOSSY BLACK by a single application of this DYE, Itim-parts a natural color, acts Instantaneously. Sold

OFFICE, 35 MURRAY ST., NEW YORK. (Dr. TUTT'S NANUAL of Valuable Information and ) [Defal Receipts will be mailed FREE on application.]

OME TREATMENT rections for self-treatment, sent free, Address
DB. T. WILLIAMS, 435 L. Suier St., Edwards, Fa.

Sick Headache and relieve all the troubles incl-dent to a billions state of the system, such as Dia-miners, Natisca, Drowsiness, Diatress after enting, Pain in the Side, Co. While their most remark-

Readache, yet Carter's Little Liver Pil's are equally valuable or Constitution, curing and preventing this amonging complaint, while they also correct all disorders of the remarch, stimulate the liver and regulate the bow. 3. Even if they only cared Ache they would be a boot promphaint; but force and comphaint; but force and comphaint; but force and there, and those who once try them will find these little pills value.

Is the bane of so many lives that hare is where we make our great boast. Our pills cure it while others do not.

Carter's Little Liver Pills are very small and very easy to take. One or two pills make a dose. They are strictly vegetable and do not gripe or purge, but by their gentle action please all who use them. In vials at 25 cents; five for $1. Sold by druggists everywhere, or sent by mail.

CARTER MEDICINE CO.,

BROWNS

DROWN'S IRON BITTERS are a certain cure for all diseases requiring a complete tonic; especially indigestion, Dyspepsia, Intermittent Fevers, Want of Appetite, Loss of Strength, Lack of Energy, ctc. Enriches the blood, strengthen i the muscles, and gives new life to the nerves. Acts like a charm on the digestive organs, removing all dyspeptic symptoms, such as tasting the food, Belching, Heat in the Stomach, Heartburn, etc. The only Iron Preparation that will not blacken the teeth or give headache. Sold by all Druggists at $1.00 a bottle.

BROWN CHEMICAL CO. Baltimore, Md. See that all Iron Bitters are made by Brown Curricas, o. and have crossed red lines and trade mark on wrapper-

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.

BEATTY'S ORGANS 27 STOPS 10 SET UP, Rare Holliday inducements Ready. Write or oil on BEATTY, Washington, N. J.

the entire system in three months. Any person who will take I pill each night from I to 12 weeks may be restored to sound health, if such a thing be possible. Sent by mail for 8 letter stamps.

I. S. JOHNSON & CO., Boston, Mass., formerly Banger, Me.

ASENTS WANTED EVERYWHERE to selt ting Machine ever invented. Will knit a pair of stoccings, with HEEL and TOE complete; in 20 minutes. It will also knit a great variety of fancywork for which there is always a ready market. Send for sircular and terms to the Twombly Knitting Plachine Co., 45 Washington St., Roston, Mass.

